

Writing Evaluation Checklist: Customer Relations Emails

After writing your email, evaluate it using the checklist below:

1. Prompt and Personal Response

- ☐ Did I respond quickly?
- ☐ Did I address the customer by their name?
- ☐ Did I provide assurance that their message was received?

2. Clarity & Confirmation

- ☐ Did I confirm the details of the customer's query?
- ☐ Was I clear in my understanding of the issue?

3. Use of Empathetic Phrases

- ☐ Did I use phrases that show understanding and empathy?
- ☐ Were my phrases genuine and appropriate for the context?

4. Showing Humility

- ☐ Did I admit when/if I was unsure about something?
- ☐ Did I assure the customer that I would seek the necessary information?

5. Crisis Management

- ☐ If there was a crisis, did I provide an initial holding statement?
- ☐ Was the statement reassuring and informative?
- ☐ Did I write a more complete follow-up e-mail that addresses the problem?

6. Positive Tone & Avoiding Negative Phrases

- ☐ Did I frame my responses in a positive manner?
- ☐ Did I avoid using negative phrases?

7. Ending with Clarity & Care

- ☐ Did I ensure that all of the customer's concerns were addressed by the end of the email?
- ☐ Did I invite further questions or clarification if needed?

8. Going Above & Beyond

- ☐ Did I make an effort to exceed the customer's expectations?
- ☐ Was I proactive in providing solutions or compensations if necessary?

9. Proofreading

- ☐ Have I checked for spelling and grammar errors?
- ☐ Did I avoid using text-like abbreviations and acronyms?